Maria O. It focuses a lot on how women were basically treated like chattel in Victorian England -very scary and interesting but the romance part just fell flat. It is imaginable that the thinness of the social life in the Middle West threw the poet upon the communion with the fields and woods, the days and nights, the changing seasons, in which another great nature poet of ours declares they "speak in various language. Without special circumstances, only photons and other massless particles would be left today. Date Reflections from a Hospice Nurse visit: December Thank Harvey H.
